Welcome To Sonbeams!

Who We Are:

Mrs. Candace, founder of Sonbeams, is a homeschooling mother to 4. Seeking products that would teach her own children about the Lord and how we should live for Him, Mrs. Candace found herself struggling to find such products, or being able to afford them.

Sonbeams was created and our main purpose is to share the Lord with as many as the Lord allows! We want to offer products that will equip parents and teachers to train up a generation that seeks the Lord in all they do.

Our Products:

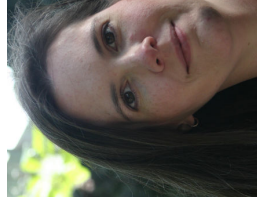

Each and every product that we create is something we stand behind! We offer a 100% satisfaction guarantee!

One of our main priorities is teaching Bible memorization. We offer KJV Bible verse songs, Homeschool Preschool Curriculum, E-books, and even chore charts that teach not only Godly principles, but God's Word behind them.

All download materials purchased are intended for the personal use of that customer only—no copies or distribution is allowed. Please respect that we have put a lot of time and energy into creating these products, and purchases of our products support the cost of making them.

We would, however, be extremely honored should you enjoy our products enough to share our website with your friends and family!
